

How to get started with Examity online proctoring

1

Log in and Complete Your Profile

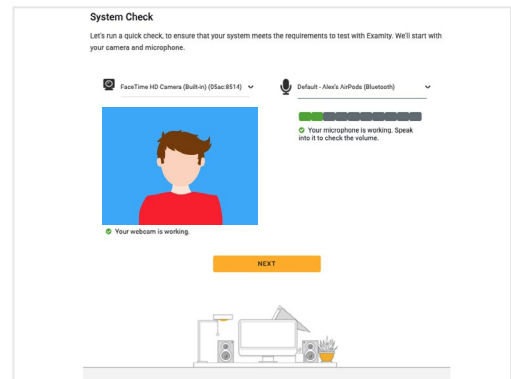

To start, click the Examity link in Blackboard. You'll then be asked to complete your profile. This helps us confirm your identity on test day.

2

Check Your System

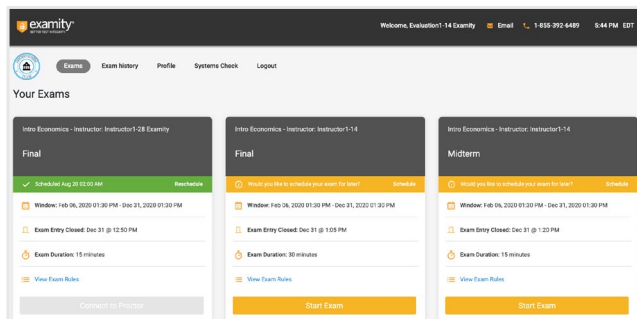

After creating your profile, you'll be prompted to test that your system meets our requirements, we recommend you do this now, and again close to test day.

3

Schedule, Start, or Practice!

From your dashboard, you'll see all available exams. Live proctored exams must be scheduled, while automated exams can be taken immediately. Your instructor may also offer practice exams.
